Remarks / Description

This notice is to officially inform you that a half-day pay deduction is being applied to your current payroll cycle. This decision has been taken because you were found wearing earbuds during working hours today, which is a direct violation of workplace policies.

Please note that this disciplinary action is not based solely on today's incident. We have been continuously monitoring your non-compliance over the past several days, and management has reviewed these repeated occurrences thoroughly before imposing this fine. Please find the attached proof detailing the specific instances.

You are strictly advised to correct your behavior immediately and ensure full compliance moving forward to avoid any further, more severe disciplinary actions. If you require any clarification regarding the attached evidence, please contact the HR department.
